

LIBERTINE MANOR

Standing Orders for MAIDS and FOOTMEN

1. No standing. All maids and footmen should kneel when waiting to serve.
2. No unions. Staff are not permitted to organize, agitate, picket, or otherwise indulge in any industrial action.
3. All maids and footmen should put themselves on duty (using !maid or !onduty) whenever they are able.
4. maids and footmen are inferior to all other residents of the Manor, including courtesans and debutantes; and must serve them if required to do so.
5. maids and footmen must use the proper form of address for all Dominant residents.
6. Uniforms must be cleaned and pressed daily and worn correctly.
7. Unless a specific exemption is given, all pubic hair must be thoroughly removed. This applies to both maids and footmen.
8. Any questions, complaints or concerns about anyone, or anything, must be brought to the attention of management for resolution. Management's decision, on any matter, is final.
9. Violations of these Standing Orders may be subject to punishment, at the discretion of management.
